Welcome and Introductions The group was welcomed to Project O by Director Thaxter Tewksbury and introduced to Dick Conway, a founding member of Project O.

Special Presentation: Juliana Barrett of CT Sea Grant gave a presentation on the importance of coastal buffer plantings. With funding from the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation, Juliana Barrett and Rachael Cleveland published an 8-page pamphlet in 2009. This pamphlet describes some of Connecticut's coastal habitats, the functions and values of riparian buffers, and how to plant a riparian buffer. Such buffers can minimize the impacts of polluted runoff on water quality and coastal habitats. A list of suitable plants for coastal buffer plantings is expected to be available in fall 2010.

TRBP business

The TRBP FY2010/11 Plan of Work was not completed in time for the summer meeting. J. Pillo requested organizations to review their activities on the FY2009/10 Plan of Work and set aside time for a conference call to complete this task in 2 weeks. E. Thomas offered to sponsor the conference call through DEP.

Floating Workshop 10 was a huge success with over 50 people participating in all or part of the program. The program was featured on the front page of the 6/27/2010 New London Day <http://www.theday.com/article/20100627/NWS01/306279918>. A recap of this workshop has been posted to the TRBP website, including a short slide show of the main events. <http://www.thamesriverbasinpartnership.org/Floating%20Workshop%202010.htm>

Partner reports were recorded in the Summer 2010 Partners in Action Report, available at www.trbp.org.

Next meeting will be October 19, 2010. The target location for this meeting will be Sprague and plans are being made to offer a tour of the Shetucket River fish habitat restoration project near Salt Rock Camp Ground.
